

WORSHIP SERVICE

November 22, 2020

“We need to haunt the house of history and listen anew to the ancestor’s wisdom.”

~Maya Angelou

PRELUDE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIGHTING OF THE CHALICE    The Paradox of Ancestry, by Chris Rothbauer
Rev. Dr. Linda Barnes

OPENING HYMN                      I Know This Rose Will Open                      SLT #396

GREETINGS AND THANKS        A Haudenosaunee Thanksgiving Address                      Tatum Barnes

OUTREACH                      Plymouth Area Community Closet                      Robert Gannett

SILENT CANDLES

We use this time to silently recognize all that we hold in our hearts - sorrows, frustrations, joys and gratitude.

SPOKEN JOYS AND SORROWS

If you have a significant joy, sorrow, or concern to share, please write it, along with your name, in the Comments section of the Zoom page. Rev. Linda will make every effort to read these out loud and light a candle to honor these meaningful moments in our lives.

HYMN                                  Hush    SLT #1040

MEDITATION    This Is Our Home, But Not Just Ours, by Laura Bogle    Rev. Dr. Linda Barnes

SILENCE

ANTHEM                              We Are, by Dr. Ysaye Barnwell                                  STJ #1051

READING                              From Braiding Sweetgrass, by Robin Wall Kimmerer                                  Bob Clay

SERMON                              Becoming Honorable Ancestors                                  Rev. Dr. Linda Barnes

With a Call from the Past, Present, and Future, by Tania Márquez

HYMN

We Sing Now Together

SLT #67

CLOSING WORDS

Rev. Dr. Linda Barnes

POSTLUDE

EXTINGUISHING THE CHALICE

Breakout Rooms for Coffee Hour!